It is a pleasure for the Latin American and Caribbean Network of National Contact Points (LAC NCP Network) to greet you and share with you the newsletter N° 31, the fourth edition of 2024.

Since the creation of the Network in 2017, our goal is to democratize and bring information closer to researchers, universities, companies, civil society organizations and any type of institution that tends to promote science, technology and innovation in the Latin American and Caribbean region (LAC).

In this line, we work to strengthen the capacities of the National Contact Points of Latin America and the Caribbean (NCP) so that all of them are in a better position to disseminate, inform and assist researchers, public and private organizations, civil society associations, encouraging their participation in the European Union's framework programs.

The team is available to energize the network, to increase the participation of the region in the Horizon Europe Program and to face the challenges ahead.

LAC NCP LAC Network team:

- Claudia Romano Núñez - Coordinator RED LAC NCP Linkedin
- Alejandro Quinteros Linkedin.
- Nadia Stratta Linkedin
- Juan Manuel Brun Linkedin
- Assistant: Gimena Pérez

Furthermore, it is made up of all the NCPs in the region, whom we would like to thank especially for their work.

Event: Reciprocity in Multilateral Research Collaboration

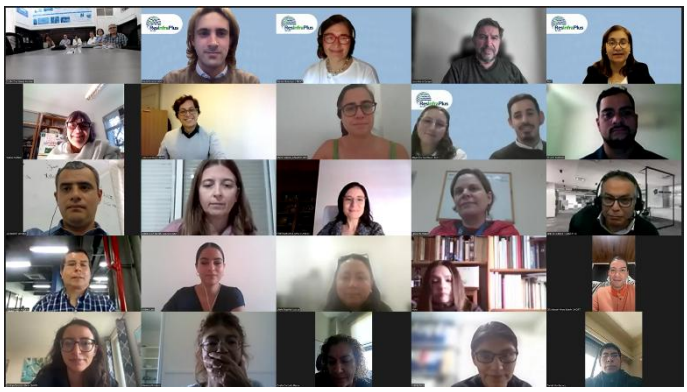

On September 17, 2024, in the framework of the Science Summit, during the United Nations General Assembly (UNGA79), Science Europe and the Research Council of Norway (RCN) will host a full-day event dedicated to exploring how reciprocal and equitable scientific partnerships can build trust and cooperation globally. This event will focus on strengthening international collaboration between Europe, Africa, Latin America and the Caribbean.

The day will address crucial issues such as Open Science, Diamond Open Access and knowledge security, aligning with the principles of the UN Policy Briefs and the UNESCO Recommendation on Open Science. It seeks to promote an equitable and reciprocal research environment that benefits all stakeholders and supports the advancement of science for the public good.

EU LAC ResInfra Plus Project: Conversation on Health and Research Infrastructures

July 11, online

With the participation of more than 50 representatives of research infrastructures and researchers from Latin America and the Caribbean (LAC) and Europe (EU), a virtual discussion on Health and Research Infrastructures was held. The objective was to provide a space to reflect on the main opportunities and challenges faced by the Research Infrastructures (RIs) of both regions in terms of international cooperation and health.

The opening remarks were given by Sabina Guaylupo, Director of the Ibero-American Office of the Spanish Foundation for Science and Technology (FECYT) and project manager of the ResInfra Plus project, and Claudia Romano, Manager of the Uruguayan Agency for International Cooperation (AUCI) and leader of Work Package 2. The EU LAC ResInfra Plus project, its 8 work packages and the activities to be carried out were presented, mentioning the interest in continuing to increase the collaboration synergies developed in the EU LAC ResInfra project between EU and LAC Irs.

José María Carazo, Head of the Bioinformatics Unit of the National Biotechnology Center (CNB-CSIC), and Dr. Ileana Morales, Executive Director of the Directorate of Science and Technological Innovation of the Ministry of Public Health of Cuba, presented the perspective of health in their respective regions. They pointed out the main challenges faced by the RIs, identifying development opportunities and problems that require special attention to advance and enhance their development, adapting each approach to the situation in their respective regions.

Finally, a group discussion ensued, in which participants exchanged proposals to establish new strategic lines of work.

EU LAC ResInfra Plus Project: Webinar “The role of research infrastructures in mission-oriented innovation policies (MOIP)”

September 2, online

With the participation of more than 40 representatives of research infrastructures and researchers from LAC and the EU, the webinar “The role of research infrastructures in mission-oriented innovation policies (MOIP)” was held virtually. The objective of the webinar was to promote a global network that takes advantage of shared knowledge and resources to maximize the impact of these policies.

Iván Luna, Director of Science of the Ministry of Science, Technology and Innovation of Colombia, opened the event by highlighting the importance of this type of event to promote scientific advances and collaboration between regions, allowing innovation and the development of tools that improve the lives of all.

Sabina Guaylupo, Director of the Ibero-American Office of the Spanish Foundation for Science and Technology (FECYT) and project manager of the ResInfra Plus project, then presented the EU LAC ResInfra Plus project, mentioning the 8 work packages and the activities to be carried out within them.

Frédéric Sgard, Senior Policy Analyst at the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) and Charles McIvor, Economist and Policy Analyst at the OECD, presented the topic “mission-oriented policies and research infrastructures”. The presentation included the meaning of MOIP, their importance, the different types and the link with research infrastructures, supported by two practical examples that allowed a better understanding.

Finally, an exchange session was held, in which the participants contributed to the debate on the role of the MOIP, their relationship with research infrastructures and the importance of international collaboration for their better development.

MSCAdvocacy project visits LAC countries

Argentina, July 3-7

MSCAdvocacy conducted a mission to Buenos Aires and Córdoba to review Argentina's participation in the Marie Skłodowska-Curie Actions (MSCA). The objectives included assessing the implementation of the program, analyzing the latest developments in science and technology policies, and examining the promotion and exploitation of opportunities offered by MSCA.

Achievements were identified such as improved communication between different actors and greater dissemination of the program, while challenges such as low participation in institutions outside the main cities were also detected. Meetings with entities such as CONICET, UBA, UNLP, UNC and UIA, as well as with the MCAA Chapter in Argentina, helped to understand how these institutions plan to increase Staff Exchange requests and adapt to changes in government funding, which has led to a more intense search for international funds such as those of the MSCA. In addition, we sought to strengthen connections between Argentine researchers and the European Union to foster stronger and more sustainable collaborations.

Brazil, July 10-14

MSCAdvocacy conducted a mission to Brazil to promote MSCAs. The mission included 13 meetings with leading research institutes and universities, as well as participation in the INOVA Fair, which facilitated numerous valuable contacts in innovation and development.

A great interest among Brazilian researchers in MSCA mobility programs was observed, although a lack of knowledge about the different modalities of program support and challenges related to prolonged mobility was identified. Discussions also addressed possible avenues for co-funding through Fundações Estaduais de Amparo à Pesquisa and other financial support mechanisms. MSCAdvocacy learned about internal support mechanisms at key institutions such as Universidade de São Paulo and Universidade Estadual de Campinas.

Uruguay: The deepening of the Marie Skłodowska-Curie Actions (MSCA) continues

July 16, online

The Uruguayan Agency for International Cooperation (AUCI), together with the LAC NCP Network, organized an informative workshop on PhD and Postdoctoral Fellowship opportunities offered by MSCA for the University of Montevideo (UM). The workshop was attended by 21 participants, and its objective was to bring the opportunities offered by MSCA closer to UM researchers and professors. The activity was led by Alejandro Quinteros, who, in addition to providing information on the aforementioned calls, emphasized the possibility for Uruguayan researchers to carry out their studies in European universities and institutions with 100% of the positions financed.

Collaboration Opportunity in Horizon Europe Projects: calls on the Soil Mission of institutions in Israel

Five leading researchers are looking for partners to join consortia in the framework of the upcoming calls of the Soil Mission of the Horizon Europe program. The calls are: 1- HORIZON-MISS-2024-SOIL-01-01: Co-creating solutions for soil health in Living Labs. 2- HORIZON-MISS-2024-SOIL-01-02: Living Labs in urban areas for healthy soils. 3- HORIZON-MISS-2024-SOIL-01-06: Harnessing the multifunctional potential of soil biodiversity for healthy cropping systems.

- Dan Grotsky (Groundwork BioAg) – interested in: HORIZON-MISS-2024-SOIL-01-06. Contact: dan@groundworkbioag.com.

Collaboration Opportunity in Horizon Europe Projects: calls from the Soil Mission of institutions in Latvia

The Latvian University of Life Sciences and Technologies is looking to collaborate in the fields of soil health indicators and crop monitoring. To this end, they are interested in joining an international consortium to participate in receiving EU funding. They are looking to collaborate with research institutions, agricultural organizations, environmental NGOs and technology companies to advance soil health and sustainability.

The calls of interest are: 1- HORIZON-MISS-2024-SOIL-01-01: Co-creation of soil health solutions in Living Labs. 2- HORIZON-MISS-2024-SOIL-01-04: Systems to quantify nitrogen fluxes and uncertainties in European landscapes. 3- HORIZON-MISS-2024-SOIL-01-05: Soil health, pollinators and key ecosystem functions. 4- HORIZON-MISS-2024-SOIL-01-06: Exploiting the multifunctional potential of soil biodiversity for healthy cropping systems.

Open call for applications for the course “Integrating Our Data in the Open Science Paradigm”.

The Latin American Consortium of Advanced Networks (RedCLARA) offers the virtual course “Integrating our data in the Open Science paradigm”. This course is designed to apply the knowledge acquired through the development and implementation of a real case of data repository adapted to the principles of open science. The course will be held from October 21 to November 8, 2024, and the call for applications is open until September 30. It is aimed at technical and research personnel in areas such as ICT, engineering or telecommunications in public entities in Latin America. To participate, it is essential to have completed the previous course, in addition to the presentation of a data repository adjusted to open science and to have knowledge in Python and Linux.

Open call for LINKS Magazine

The Global Linkage Center of the Universidad Tecnológica, Uruguay. Invites to participate in the Third Call for Papers for Volume 3 of LINKS, the International Journal of UTEC, focused on Science, Technology and Innovation.

The call finds the following thematic axes: Sustainable Water and Soil Management; Sustainable Agro-food Production and Educational Innovation.

The call is open to UTEC's internal community (students, graduates, teachers and collaborators) and partner universities, both national and international.

The application period is from July 1 to October 3, 2024.

For more information. Write to: revista.links@utec.edu.uy.

Reminder: Call for Trials - INORMS 2025

The Congress of the International Network of Research Management Societies (INORMS) will be held May 6-8, 2025 in Madrid, Spain. Organized by EARMA, with the support of Fundación Madri+D, Universidad Politécnica de Madrid and CSIC. The congress will address the theme "A sustainable profession in a sustainable world". Don't miss the opportunity to contribute to this important event and share your research and experiences.

The call for papers is open from June 18 and closes on September 16. Those interested in participating should complete the Registration Form available at: https://earma.org/conferences/inorms-congress-madrid-2025/

Updating of the National Contact Points (NCP) information

Step 1

First, you need to log into the Funding & Tenders page[1], as you can see in the image below.

Step 2

Once logged in, a side menu will be displayed on the left side of the screen. In this menu, you will find several options, including "My Person Profile". If you have not created your profile yet, a message will be displayed indicating that it does not exist and offering you the possibility to do so.

1 Funding & Tender s link: https://ec.europa.eu/info/funding-tenders/opportunities/portal/screen/home

Step 3

Once the "Yes" option is selected, the next step is to access the "Personal" tab and choose the "Get started" option. This will initiate the process of registering each user's personal information.

Step 4

Then you must complete the information that the page will request for the correct registration of the profile. The data requested are: Personal Details; Contact Details; Biography; Languages; Areas of Expertise; Education; CV Links; CV ID; Employment History; Publications/Books/Articles; and Additional Information.

Step 5

Regarding the information needed to complete, one of the obligatory sections is the field called "Employment history", which must be completed in order for the registration process to be successful. As will be illustrated in the image below, when accessing this field, it will be necessary to provide information related to the person's employment status. You must press "Add experience" to enter the data corresponding to each work experience. Once you have finished recording all the experiences, you need to click "Save" to continue with the registration.

Step 6

Once the personal information registration process is completed, you will be redirected to the home page that appeared when you logged in, but now with your saved information. At the bottom right of the screen, the "Save & Publish" option will appear. To save the data, you must select this option and then accept the conditions related to the publication of the personal profile.

Step 7

Once this process is completed, the next step is to access the "NCPM" tab within "My Person Profile". This section will present the NCP information, which will appear later on the page. Within the "NCPM" tab, you will find a box with the assigned NCP information. It will be necessary to complete this information by selecting the "Edit" option, located on the right side of the box.

Step 8

Once you have completed the information in this section, it is necessary to click on "Save & Return" to ensure that the changes are saved correctly. For National Contact Points who have not yet completed their "Person Profile", they will not have their information visible in the NPCM Registry and the Public Portal. Only by accessing and completing "My Person Profile" will the complete data (such as address, phone number, etc.) be displayed on both platforms.

Step 9

Finally, to verify that all the changes have been made correctly, you must access the Funding & Tenders page and go to the "Guidance & documents" section. By selecting the "Helpdesk & support" option, you will be redirected to a page where you will be able to view the NPCs.

Step 10

Next, you will need to enter the "Filters" panel on the left margin of the screen, select the "Horizon Europe (HORIZON)" program and then choose the "National Contact Points (NCPs) for Horizon Europe" option. In this section, you will be able to check if the modified NCP information has been updated correctly.

Your Guide to Intellectual property Management in Horizon Europe

The purpose of this guide is to spotlight critical aspects and novelties related to Intellectual Property (IP) management in the context of collaborative research and innovation projects funded under the European Union's current Framework Programme for Research and Innovation "Horizon Europe" (2021-2027). It does not claim to be exhaustive. The IP rules of Horizon Europe are built to a large extent on the regulationsestablished by the previous Framework Programme "Horizon 2020". Therefore, this guide complements the existing guide "Your Guide to IP in Horizon 2020".
