Carthage International Theater Days Festival (22nd session)*

Announcement

The Carthage Theater Days is an international festival that dedicates an official competition to national, Arab and African theatrical performances and opens up to theatrical experiences from countries of the South and the world. To this end, the organizing committee of the twenty-second session "22" of the festival, which will be held from December 4 to 12, 2021, is launching a call for applications to participate in this session under the following conditions:

Participation conditions:

- The proposed theatrical work must have been produced since October 2019.
- The completed participation form to download from the festival website (www.jtc.tn)
- Bio data of the author, director, actors and technicians, to be provided along with their photos and a summary of the proposed theatrical work.
- The artistic and technical rider of the work, including the synopsis of the proposed theatrical work and all the scenic elements required as well as the technical needs in sound and light.
- The certificate of the first performance.
- The press kit including critical and media coverage of the show, with photographs of the proposed work.
- A complete audiovisual recording of the show in high resolution.
- The deadline for submitting applications is September 07, 2021, and incomplete applications or received after this deadline will not be accepted.

Regarding international theatrical performances:

- The festival provides full board accommodation during the stay for the actors, the director and three (3) technicians, the total number not to exceed fifteen (15) people.
- The festival management will provide transport within the country for the members of the troop.
- The participating company will cover international transportation costs for its members as well as those for equipment and accessories necessary for the show.
- The management of Carthage Theater Days reserves the right to schedule more than one show of the participating theatrical work within the territory of the Republic of Tunisia during the festival.

Applications should be sent by e-mail (contact@jtc.tn) or by post to Carthage International Theatre Days Festival: 16 bis Rue d'Autriche, Le Belvédère, Tunisie 1002 within a deadline not exceeding September 7, 2021.

- The submitted by the structures to participate in 2020 session will only be validated after confirmation of their participation in this 2021 session in writing by e-mail sent to the "Journées théâtrales de Carthage": contact@jtye.tn
